

View from the Study Window...

As I write, winter has the northeast in firm grip – cold and snow and fifteen-hour nights. But by month's end, days will be noticeably longer, and the increased sunlight will begin to coax life out of that which has been dormant. To the observant, nature will reveal that "trouble don't last always".

In February, I will be on sabbatical leave (February through May). Rev. Jennifer will be back from her personal leave, and she will be full-time for the four months I'm away. Jennifer's current contract is for 25 hours a week. With the additional time, she will pick up some staff supervision, working with lay leaders/committees, and pastoral contacts. Given our experience during the first half of this church year, we have every reason to expect a smooth continuation of ministerial services to young and old alike.

Wishing you a bright and prosperous new year,

~Jean

Turn Your Life Around

Rev. Jean L. Wahlstrom

We begin the new year with a look at the role and value of communities in lasting, significant change. The best of these are both supportive and challenging – they speak truth in love.

Today is "Bring a Friend Sunday" and all MMUUS members are invited to bring a friend or two to today's service.

Fracking

Rev. Jean L. Wahlstrom

What do we – and don't we – know about hydrofracking the Marcellus shale? What sources bolster our opinions, feelings, and judgments?

January 19

Rev. Jean L. Wahlstrom

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. found it at his kitchen table late one night. Dag Hammarskjöld found it in the mountains. Jesus, in a garden. Alone, apart, and in conversation with their God, they humbled themselves, and were blessed with the clarity and strength to go on.

Our morning worship will include a special ceremony of Child Naming and Dedication (see page 2). In this special event, we welcome children by name, and recognize their place in our congregation.

This I Believe

Judy Antoine

Come and hear some of your fellow congregants in an intergenerational service as they share their insights about the values that have shaped their daily actions. Each will read their short essay on "This I Believe".

CareRing News & Notes

We are sad to report that Saul Berkman, husband of MMUUS member Geri Berkman, died on December 24th. He was 93. In working life, he had been an oceanographer for the US government, but in retirement, had been struggling for two or three decades with cerebellar ataxia. It gradually robbed him of many functions such as walking and speaking clearly and he became almost completely dependent upon Geri. She has lived a life of quiet heroism, maintaining community contacts for them both as well as taking good care of him.

Besides his wife, Saul leaves two daughters, a granddaughter, three great-grandchildren, and two sisters. One of his sisters is Jane Feld, wife of our Sam Feld. Saul's funeral was on Friday, December 27th, and was in the Jewish tradition. Cards and notes to Geri would, of course, be welcome.

Fred and Chris Fiske are happy to announce the birth of their granddaughter, Lucy Lee H.F. Bostelmann, who was born on December 15th, in Seattle, Washington to their daughter Kate Hennessy-Fiske and Tom Bostelmann. Lucy Lee joins granddaughter Frida Marrina H.F. Bostelmann (2½ years).

Memorial Service for Helen Stern

There will be a memorial service and reception for Helen Stern at 2:00 pm on Sunday, January 19th, at May Memorial.

Friendship Sunday - January 5

On January 5, 2014, all members of May Memorial are invited to bring a friend, or perhaps two, to our Sunday service. There will be special printings available to provide information about us.

We will all promise to be on our very best behavior, and the whole service will be built around the idea of inviting our friends into this very special place that means so much to us. There will also be a first Sunday lunch provided by the Membership Committee and the Teens that will be complimentary to our guests, following the service.

The idea for the event is not to convert people to a UU way of thinking, but, rather, to share this place that means so much to us with the people in our lives who also mean a great deal. They see us spending many hours at MMUUS and devoting our time and treasure to this society.

Many of them have no real understanding of what goes on here. This day provides a great opportunity to share the place you love with the people you love.

Talk to members of the Membership Committee for more details

Child Naming and Dedication Ceremony

On Sunday, January 19th, our morning worship will include a special ceremony of Child Naming and Dedication. We welcome children by name, and recognize their place in our congregation. Parents pledge to raise their children in accordance with the highest values they know, and the congregation accepts its role of guidance and support in this sacred endeavor.

If you would like your family to be included in this ceremony, and for more information, please contact Rev. Jean at minister@mmuus.org or 446-8920. May Memorial families with any age children may participate – it is not for infants only.

Marvelous History Corner

Our Christmases Past

As a person interested in our church history, one of the activities that brings me much joy is pouring over older church documents. What some might find a chore in smelling old sometimes musty paper, I find myself reverently reaching back and touching the minds, spirits, and even essence of our ancestors. I recently discovered some orders of service from 50 or more years ago and would like to share a little of this essence with you.

Having just experienced our own holiday season services, I want to describe a church service conducted on December 20, 1959, in the old James Street church. It began with an organ prelude by Frank Macomber during which he played La Nativite by French composer Jean Langlais, and In Dulci Jubilo by Johann Michael Bach. After a candle lighting at the alter, Hildegarde Vander Sluis sang the Appalachian Carol.

Next came a dedication of children ending with the congregation singing the hymn, It Came Upon a Midnight Clear. This was followed by a story read by Jean Zoerheide (Rev. Bob's wife) entitled World, Book, and Candle. The hymn, O Come, O Come, Emmanuel, was sung next. The musical selection from Frank Macomber for the offertory was Greensleeves. Next came a sermon by Rev. Zoerheide entitled, When the World Turns to Christmas, in which he highlighted the family of today, children of the world, a girl from India, and the shepherds of the Christian story. The final hymn was Joy to the World.

For those who may remember that far back, here were some of the people involved in that service; The candle lighters were Robin Gourley, Jana Henrikson, and Douglas Livingston. The Christmas tableau was created by Al and Helen Obrist, Carl Bye, Sylvia Vander Sluis, Jeffrey Johnson, Virginia Tradup, James Chapman, and Donald Northrop. The Postlude singers were members of the 5th through the 8th grades and directed by Miss Joan Kibbe. On display was a globe presented by Mrs. William Eager in memory of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Frank Hiscock, and a menorah on loan from Temple Concord. The order of service cover was designed by Donald Waterman. The following people were thanked for helping to prepare the Christmas service: Mrs. Inglehart Smith, Warren Ransler, Mrs. Kenneth Kindelsperger, Mrs. James Chapman, and Mrs. Allen Stephens.

On the back of the order of service was this reading recommended to be used by each family in their own candle lighting time:

Once, a long ago, a star pointed the way to where a little child brought love and light;

And now we think that from each home that's filled with love and faith, this star shines out again.

*There are so many little children in this world to love;
so many homes to send out shining hope!*

Go, little candle, Light of Home in many homes,

shine out upon the world and turn into its guiding star!

Poignant thoughts to remember each holiday season as we think about those who passed before us in the continuation of this church.

Chair, History Committee

UU 102 – January 12 at noon

This informational gathering will go beyond a basic understanding of Unitarian Universalism and our congregation. You will learn how and where to get more involved in the life of May Memorial UU, plus information on our programs, governance, and history.

Lunch and child care will be provided. Led by Rev. Jean and hosted by the Membership Committee.

First Sunday Luncheon - January 5

All are invited to the First Sunday Luncheon on January 5th, after service. The luncheon will be hosted by the Membership Committee and the MMUUS Teenz.

May Memorial needs your talents and abilities

In our ongoing efforts to meet budget at May Memorial, we are seeking talented people in many fields. Please have a look at our openings and consider sharing your skills. The work brings with it much satisfaction and public acclaim. No pay is involved for these truly challenging and mind stretching jobs, but the community of May Memorial will benefit greatly. Take this opportunity to enhance your resume and experience personal growth.

- Men with trucks - Men with vehicles capable of hauling scrap metal to the local junk yards and recycling facilities
- Teens with energy - Teens willing to accompany the Men with trucks to collect scrap metal
- Donators of scrap metal - Members and friends of the congregation who have metal objects they wish to remove from their property
- eBay experts - People who have sold items on eBay and who are willing to share their knowledge on how to do this successfully
- People cleaning out their homes - Members and friends who have items they are looking to unload
- Christmas bargain shoppers - Members and friends willing to purchase those fabulous Christmas bargains offered at low, low prices Said items will be donated to the Goods and Services Auction
- Art collectors – Anyone owning a fabulous piece of art who would like to donate said item and claim a great tax credit
- Baristas (Preferably with their own machine) - Someone to create delicious coffee drinks at MMUUS galas
- Family teams - Dedicated families who are willing to save returnable bottles and cans, cash them in and then donate the money to MMUUS as a community service
- Telephone solicitors - Gracious, well spoken folks who can charm local merchants and organizations into donating tickets, goods or services to a worthy organization

If you have the talent and drive to seek the life enhancing experience of any of these positions, please contact Alexa Carter at garlex@aol.com, Barbara Weingart at weingartbarbara@hotmail.com or Lynne Perry at clynneperry@gmail.com

Happy New Year! We seem to be having an exciting church year, but it is time to look to the future. Our vibrant congregation succeeds thanks to many who not only make major pledges but who also volunteer their time behind the scenes. What are you doing to help?

I have scheduled a meeting of everyone who has been a stewardship (canvas) chair in prior years, here or at a different church, to meet with this year's canvas co-chairs, Steve Reiter and Lynne Perry on January 5th. There will be a First Sunday Luncheon on January 5th, so the meeting will begin at 12:30 pm in the Memorial Room. This meeting will give you who have chaired in other years the opportunity to share your experience with Steve and Lynne. From you they can learn what worked and what didn't work. Your participation in this meeting will be extremely helpful. If any of you miss your ride home with your family because of this meeting, we can get you home after the meeting.

We need to fill two important positions:

- 1) Malcolm Clark has informed the Board that after many years of "silent service", he will be stepping down as Database Manager. The job involves computer skills, and is a job which can be done on one's own time schedule. Ask Malcolm for more details. Malcolm is shopping for a new database software package, so if you might be interested in this position, you might want to get involved right away.
- 2) Joyce Leonard has served us behind the scenes as Treasurer/Finance Committee Chair for a number of years, and is stepping down this June. Perhaps we could have one person as Treasurer and a different person as Finance Committee Chair. Ask Joyce for more details

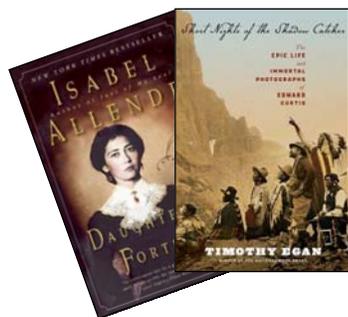

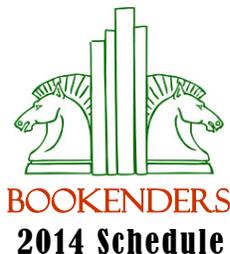

Reminder to all: many questions which arise about policies and practices here at May are not exactly new questions. To avoid reinventing the wheel, we accumulate much helpful information in what we call our Operating Manual. If you want to inspect it, ask Brian Betz in the office. If you think of something which needs to be added, contact me.

A message from the UUSC

We have already begun to respond to the typhoon that killed thousands and displaced half a million people in the Philippines, but another emergency is sparking our concern and compassion.

In Kenya, a crop disease has wiped out much of that country's maize crop. Maize lethal necrosis disease has cut yields of Kenya's most important crop by up to 70 percent in some areas.

In the name of marginalized people everywhere, please make a generous donation to UUSC today to support all of our work to advance human rights. You can make your online donation at https://secure2.convio.net/uusc/site/Donation2.jsessionid=6C40FD1AC6D8101C1D6A64AE545A5BB0.app260a?idb=1504725723&df_id=3610&3610.donation=form1&idb=0&s_src=121213YE#4&AddInterest=1161. Donations by check can be mailed to UUSC, PO Box 808, Newark, NJ 07101-0808.

Hunger is becoming an issue for many in Kenya. Perhaps even worse, the crop failures could reverse years of hard-won progress toward self-sufficiency for small farmers and landholders in this largely agricultural nation.

The crisis could be devastating for the SoilFarm Multi-Culture Group, UUSC's local partner, and its landmark Hope in Crops project. Hope in Crops empowers local communities to farm sustainably, lift themselves out of poverty, and live harmoniously with the ecologically important tropical forests in the region. UUSC is responding with financial and technical support to get this critically important movement back on its feet.

Chances are you haven't heard about maize lethal necrosis disease. Unlike the typhoon, the crop crisis has failed to capture the attention of the global media. It is especially important for UUSC to respond to humanitarian emergencies like this that simmer in obscurity. In many situations if we don't respond, no one will.

UUSC brings its passion for justice and universal dignity all around the globe — and you are an essential part of it. In your name, we are working in the storm-ravaged Philippines, Kenya, Haiti, and even in your neighborhood restaurant.

Please take advantage of our special matching gift challenge and make a donation today to support all of our work.

Thank you in advance for your generosity. And wishing you and yours a joyous holiday season.

Sincerely,

Bill Schulz

President and CEO

Unitarian Universalist Service Committee

February is May Memorial Loves the Arts month

Do you have a wonderful piece of art that you would like to share with our community during the month of February, May Memorial Loves the Arts month? No, not that Picasso you have stashed away—that's too much liability! I'm talking about that marvelous work that has been hanging in your living room all these years? Or, that incredible piece that just doesn't work with your décor? Or how about that piece you (or your child) did in 5th grade that is ever so nicely framed?

Help us celebrate May Memorial Loves the Arts month by providing a unique work of art to hang in the gallery for the month of February. Contact Mariah Dillon at emducey@syr.edu for details and to provide a brief description of your artwork!

Annual Family Potluck and Bingo Party

Join us on Saturday, January 25th, at 6:00 pm in the Social Hall for an evening of fun. The good news: EVERYONE is a winner! (this is a great event to bring visitors to!)

Be sure to bring pace settings for your family (this is a GREEN event!), a dish to share, a prize to place on our Big Prize Table (one for each person playing) and your $1 "entry fee" for each person playing

Be there or be square!! Questions? Contact Julie Daniel at 622-3423 or email jdanielyoga@gmail.com.

Spiritual Enrichment Groups

All Spiritual Enrichment groups are open to new members. However, they are not "drop in" groups – that is, we ask you to try it out for a few sessions, and then make a commitment to regular attendance. Each group has a covenant of shared understandings about their meetings and participation.

To find out more about the program, pick up the brochure "Spiritual Enrichment Groups – the Small Group Ministry program at May Memorial UU Society", or speak to Rev. Jean or one of the group facilitators. If you are interested in joining a group, you will find an interest form in the brochure – or email Rev. Jean (minister@mmuus.org) your name, contact information, and which group(s) would match your availability.

Our Care Baskets

Looking to lose a few pounds after the holidays?? Feel free to drop them (at least figuratively) in our Care Baskets in the foyer. Personal care items and healthy foods are greatly needed and appreciated. Make a resolution to be a regular contributor!

Why bring a friend to May Memorial on January 5?

In his recent memoir, Rev. Mark Morrison-Reed, one of our most prominent UU ministers, writes of how he was introduced to Unitarian Universalism:

“Our family ended up Unitarians because one Sunday morning, Dad, observing Philip and me peering out the window at the families heading for church in their Sunday best, said to himself, ‘I don’t like this void. We’ve got to be something.’ He had been raised Christian Scientist so that’s where he took us. But when we got home, Mother said, ‘No more of that,’ and the two of them had it out. Dad reported the argument to his colleague [at the University of Chicago’s nuclear chemistry research laboratory], who invited our family to accompany him to the Unitarian church near the University of Chicago campus. Mother took Philip, Carole and me; she liked it, and the next week Dad came with us. Fifty years later, he still attends that congregation, and Mother is there as well, interred in the crypt beneath the church.

“In 1954 Dad cradled infant Carole, while Philip and I, wearing matching plaid sport jackets, stood in front of the congregation to be christened – the first Negro children named and dedicated in the First Unitarian Society of Chicago ... By the mid-sixties the congregation was 15 percent Afro-American, and today about a third of its members are people of color.”

~ from In Between – Memoir of an Integration Baby

What great good resulted from that one invitation! Good for the Morrisons, for First Unitarian in Chicago, for the many congregations Mark has served, and for Unitarian Universalism as a movement. A colleague’s simple willingness to share his church with a friend and colleague changed countless lives for the better. Could he ever have imagined that? Could you?

The staff and leadership of MMUUS encourage you to invite a friend, coworker, or neighbor to May Memorial on “Bring a Friend Sunday”, January 5th. (You might even mention that their lunch that Sunday will be “our treat”.)

~ In faith, Jean

MUSIC AND THE ARTS

Folkus presents “May Memorial Appreciation Night”- January 24

On Friday, January 24th, at 8:00 pm, the Folkus Project is happy to present “May Memorial Appreciation Night”, when anyone mentioning they are MMUUS members will get $5 off that show for themselves and one guest.

The featured performers on January 24th, will be the Parkington Sisters. The Parkington Sisters are Ariel, Sarah, Nora, and Rose, and the daughters of a progressive rock musician and a classically trained guitarist and songwriter. They were raised playing music on picturesque Cape Cod. Like many sibling acts, they possess a rare musical chemistry. Each of the sisters is a songwriter and a multi-instrumentalist, adding up to a multifaceted sound. With soaring melodies, tumbling from optimistic heights to eerie lows, vibrant harmonies and intricate arrangements, their songwriting incorporates the eclectic songwriting of Joni Mitchell and Aimee Mann, the energy of June Carter and the hit potential of Mumford and Sons.

To reserve tickets, or for details and additional ticket info, go to <http://www.folkus.org>.

“Blue Swirl” by Ilene Layow

Featured Gallery Artist for January: Ilene Layow

During the month of January, May Memorial will exhibit the artwork of local artist Ilene Layow.

Ilene Layow creates murals, portraits, glass and ceramic bowls, jewelry, and sculptures. She enjoys working with color, texture, shape and form. Her favorite thing to do is to create, share and teach art to others. Her personal abstract artwork is a combination of the elements above and landscape studies which she calls “formsapes”.

Thinking about a meaningful volunteer service trip this year?

Please consider contacting the Rev. Susan Karlson, the CERG Disaster Response Coordinator. She will help coordinate your trip with work sites and volunteer housing plus offer an orientation and some debriefing afterwards. Contact her at skarlson@uuma.org or call (347) 979-6742. Check out the CERG UU Sandy Recovery Facebook page for updates, volunteer opportunities and worship resources (CERG UU Sandy Recovery Facebook).

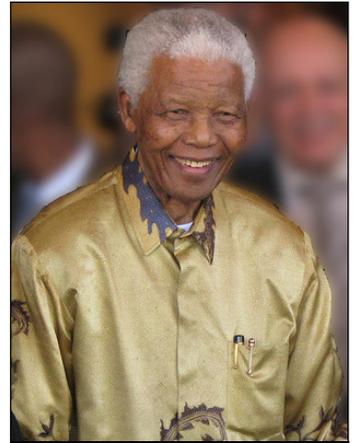

The Life and Legacy of Nelson Mandela

The Rev. Peter Morales, president of the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA), issued the following statement on the life and legacy of Nelson Mandela:

"As we begin to grieve the death of Nelson Mandela, I am reminded of his words, 'I learned that courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it. The brave man is not he who does not feel afraid, but he who conquers that fear.'"

As members of a faith community committed to equity and justice, we remember the life and legacy of Nelson Mandela. He shines as an example of how one person can change the world and make it a better place.

Today and every day let us face our own fears of the unknown and the misunderstood. Remember Nelson Mandela's words so that we may embrace that fear, conquer it, be courageous, and change the world."
