Flower Communion Sunday

Rev. Jean and Rev. Jennifer

A multigenerational service celebrating the “found beauty” in our lives. Remember to bring a flower!

May Memorial Unitarian Universalist Society has been a presence for liberal religion and social justice in Syracuse since 1838. We are committed to being an inclusive, respectful, caring community of faith that reaches out in welcome while coming together for mutual inspiration, empowerment and life long learning.

Special Needs: Please speak to an usher before the service begins for...

- Help with Hearing the Service (FM frequency 97.9)
- Large print edition of hymnal and order of service
- Braille text of most hymns and readings
- Directions to the Nursery or rest rooms
- Cards for sharing a Joy or Sorrow
- Directions to the Memorial Room, where there is an A/V feed of the service in a more distraction-friendly environment.
