

Welcome

Good Morning!

Welcome to our Sunday Morning
Celebration of Life Service

This is our Temple, our Mosque, our Long House, and our Sanctuary.
Come as you are, with your doubts as well as your convictions, with your hopes and your fears, with your failures and your aspirations. Here, may no one be a stranger."

I'm -----, from the Worship Committee.

I would like to extend an especially warm welcome to those of you visiting us, or here for the first time. We invite everyone to stay for coffee, tea, and conversation in our social hall immediately following the service.

I would like to bring your attention to the announcements
in the Order of Service.

In addition, I would like to announce that:

This mornings' service is lay led.
Rev Jean will be back in the pulpit next week.
We are honored to have ----- with us today.

Now, Please stand as you are able, to greet your neighbors
Before we sing our Opening Hymn,

#1xx First hymn
